NARRATIVE:

Keith Lewis has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include vehicle theft, sales of marijuana, assault with a deadly weapon, possession and sales of narcotic controlled substances, burglary, robbery, violation of parole, and grand theft from person. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for grand theft from person. Lewis was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 17, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Lewis qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for grand theft from person is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
